DRESS CODE FOR FORMAL AND SEMI-FORMAL EVENTS AND DANCES:

Boys: Normal attire would be a suit or sport coat/and or vest, dress slacks, **dress jeans (absolutely NO holes, frays, or rips), dress shirt and tie, and dress shoes or boots.

**If dress jeans are worn, you MUST still wear a vest and/or jacket with a dress shirt and tie. Dress shoes or boots.

For formal dances, tuxedos are appropriate but not required. Grooming codes apply.

Girls:

The following guidelines are to be followed when selecting proper attire for formal and semi-formal events such as, but not limited to, prom and homecoming. The modesty guidelines for the girl's policy are taken from Pure Fashion, an international faith-based program designed for girls 14 – 18 to help young women rediscover and reaffirm their innate value and authentic femininity.

- NO CLEAVAGE SHOULD BE VISIBLE; FRONT OR SIDE
- NO STRAPLESS DRESSES
- The neckline should not be lower than four fingers below the collarbone
- The material should not be sheer, very thin, or spandex
- The backs should be modest, dipping no lower than the natural waist, and there may be no gapping. The back must be secured by straps, illusion fabric, etc.
- Any slit in the dress should be no higher than the knees
- Dress length should not be any shorter than four fingers above the top of the kneecap
- Spaghetti straps and halter tops are acceptable following the guidelines from above concerning cleavage

Let the clothing be an advertisement of your dignity as a young lady. Walk, stand and sit with dignity. Think of yourself as a person who deserves respect. Ask for it by dressing in a dignified manner.

Please be advised that:

- Guests agree to adhere to our Dress Code guidelines, or may be refused admission
- No same – gendered couples will be allowed.
- Alcohol is prohibited.
- Those exhibiting behavior symptomatic of alcohol or drug consumption will not be permitted to attend the event.
- In most cases, once a student has left the event, they will not be allowed to re-enter.
